

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

MELISSA ANDERSON,

Plaintiff,

-VS-

CASE NO.: 3:17-cv-3320

NATIONSTAR MORTGAGE LLC,
d/b/a MR. COOPER,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff, MELISSA ANDERSON, by and through the undersigned counsel, and sues Defendant, NATIONSTAR MORTGAGE LLC, d/b/a MR. COOPER (“Nationstar”), and in support thereof respectfully alleges violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 et seq. (“TCPA”).

INTRODUCTION

1. The TCPA was enacted to prevent companies like Nationstar from invading American citizens’ privacy and to prevent abusive “robo-calls.”

2. “The TCPA is designed to protect individual consumers from receiving intrusive and unwanted telephone calls.” Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, 132 S. Ct. 740 (2012).

3. “Senator Hollings, the TCPA’s sponsor, described these calls as ‘the *1256 scourge of modern civilization, they wake us up in the morning; they interrupt our dinner at night; they force the sick and elderly out of bed; they hound us until we want to rip the telephone out of the wall.” 137 Cong. Rec. 30, 821 (1991). Senator Hollings presumably intended to give telephone subscribers another option: telling the autodialers to simply stop calling.” Osorio v. State Farm Bank, F.S.B., 746 F. 3d 1242 (11th Cir. 2014).

4. According to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), “Unwanted calls and texts are the number one complaint to the FCC. There are thousands of complaints to the FCC every month on both telemarketing and robocalls. The FCC received more than 215,000 TCPA complaints in 2014.” Fact Sheet: Wheeler Proposal to Protect and Empower Consumers Against Unwanted Robocalls, Texts to Wireless Phones, Federal Communications Commission, (May 27, 2015), https://apps.fcc.gov/edocs_public/attachmatch/DOC-333676A1.pdf.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. Jurisdiction and venue for purposes of this action are appropriate and conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1331, Federal Question Jurisdiction, as this action involves violations of the TCPA.

6. Subject matter jurisdiction, federal question jurisdiction, for purposes of this action is appropriate and conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1331, which provides that the district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States; and this action involves violations of 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii). See Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, S.Ct. 740, 748 (2012) and Osorio v. State Farm Bank, F.S.B., 746 F.3d 1242, 1249 (11th Cir. 2014).

7. The alleged violations described herein occurred in Dallas County, Texas. Accordingly, venue is appropriate with this Court under 28 U.S.C. §1331(b)(2), as it is the judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this action occurred.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. Plaintiff is a natural person, and citizen of the State of Mississippi, residing in Hinds County, Mississippi.

9. Plaintiff is the “called party.” See Breslow v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 755 F. 3d 1265 (11th Cir. 2014) and Osorio v. State Farm Bank, F.S.B., 746 F.3d 1242 (11th Cir. 2014).

10. Defendant, Nationstar, is a corporation which was formed in Delaware with its principal place of business located at 8950 Cypress Waters Blvd Coppell, TX 75019, and which conducts business in the State of Texas through its registered agent, Corporation Service Company, located at 211 E. 7th Street, Suite 620, Austin, TX 78701.

11. Nationstar called Plaintiff approximately three hundred fifty (350) times in an attempt to collect a mortgage debt.

12. Upon information and belief, some or all of the calls Nationstar made to Plaintiff’s cellular telephone number were made using an “automatic telephone dialing system” which has the capacity to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator (including but not limited to a predictive dialer) or an artificial or prerecorded voice; and to dial such numbers as specified by 47 U.S.C § 227(a)(1) (hereinafter “autodialer calls”). Plaintiff will testify that she knew it was an autodialer because of the vast number of calls she received and because she heard a pause when she answered her phone before a voice came on the line, and she received prerecorded messages from Nationstar.

13. Plaintiff is the subscriber, regular user and carrier of the cellular telephone number (601) -0334, and was the called party and recipient of Defendant's calls.

14. Nationstar placed an exorbitant number of automated calls to Plaintiff's cellular telephone (601) -0334 in an attempt to collect on a mortgage loan.

15. On several occasions over the last four (4) years, Plaintiff instructed Nationstar's agents to stop calling her cellular telephone.

16. On or about July of 2016, Plaintiff instructed Nationstar to cease calls to her cellular phone, stating "I'd prefer that you do not call this number."

17. On or about August 9, 2017, Plaintiff again instructed Nationstar to cease calls to her cellular phone.

18. The auto-dialer calls from Defendant came from telephone numbers including but not limited to (888) 811-5279 and (888) 480-2432, and when those numbers are called a pre-recorded voice or agent answers and identifies the number as belonging to Nationstar.

19. Nationstar has a corporate policy to use an automatic telephone dialing system or a pre-recorded or artificial voice to individuals just as they did to Plaintiff's cellular telephone in this case.

20. Nationstar has a corporate policy to use an automatic telephone dialing system or a pre-recorded or artificial voice, just as they did to the Plaintiff's cellular telephone in this case, with no way for the consumer, or Nationstar, to remove the number.

21. Nationstar's corporate policy is structured so as to continue to call individuals like Plaintiff, despite these individuals explaining to Nationstar they do not wish to be called.

22. Nationstar has numerous other federal lawsuits pending against them alleging similar violations as stated in this Complaint.

23. Nationstar has numerous complaints against it across the country asserting that its automatic telephone dialing system continues to call despite being requested to stop.

24. Nationstar has had numerous complaints against it from consumers across the country asking to not be called, however Defendant continues to call these individuals.

25. Nationstar's corporate policy provided no means for Plaintiff to have Plaintiff's number removed from Nationstar's call list.

26. Nationstar has a corporate policy to harass and abuse individuals despite actual knowledge the called parties do not wish to be called.

27. Not one of Nationstar's telephone calls placed to Plaintiff were for "emergency purposes" as specified in 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A).

28. Nationstar willfully and/or knowingly violated the TCPA with respect to Plaintiff.

29. From each and every call placed without express consent by Nationstar to Plaintiff's cell phone, Plaintiff suffered the injury of invasion of privacy and the intrusion upon her right of seclusion.

30. From each and every call without express consent placed by Nationstar to Plaintiff's cell phone, Plaintiff suffered the injury of the occupation of her cellular telephone line and cellular phone by unwelcome calls, making the phone unavailable for legitimate callers or outgoing calls while the phone was ringing from Nationstar's call.

31. From each and every call placed without express consent by Nationstar to Plaintiff's cell phone, Plaintiff suffered the injury of unnecessary expenditure of her time. For calls she answered, the time she spent on the call was unnecessary as she repeatedly asked for the calls to stop. Even for unanswered calls, Plaintiff had to waste time to unlock the phone and deal with missed call notifications and call logs that reflect the unwanted calls. This also impaired the usefulness of these features of Plaintiff's cellular phone, which are designed to inform the user of important missed communications.

32. Each and every call placed without express consent by Nationstar to Plaintiff's cell phone was an injury in the form of a nuisance and annoyance to the Plaintiff. For calls that were answered, Plaintiff had to go to the unnecessary trouble of answering them. Even for unanswered calls, Plaintiff had to waste time to unlock the phone and deal with missed call notifications and call logs that reflected the unwanted calls. This also impaired the usefulness of these features of Plaintiff's cellular phone, which are designed to inform the user of important missed communications.

33. Each and every call placed without express consent by Nationstar to Plaintiff's cell phone resulted in the injury of unnecessary expenditure of Plaintiff's cell phone's battery power.

34. Each and every call placed without express consent by Nationstar to Plaintiff's cell phone where a voice message was left which occupied space in Plaintiff's phone or network.

35. Each and every call placed without express consent by Nationstar to Plaintiff's cell phone resulted in the injury of a trespass to Plaintiff's chattel, namely her cellular phone and her cellular phone services.

36. As a result of the calls described above, Plaintiff suffered an invasion of privacy. Plaintiff was also affected in a personal and individualized way by stress, anxiety, nervousness, embarrassment, distress and aggravation.

COUNT I
(Violation of the TCPA)

37. Plaintiff fully incorporates and realleges paragraphs one (1) through thirty-six (36) as if fully set forth herein.

38. Nationstar willfully violated the TCPA with respect to Plaintiff, specifically for each of the auto-dialer calls made to Plaintiff's cellular telephone after Plaintiff notified Nationstar that Plaintiff wished for the calls to stop.

39. Nationstar repeatedly placed non-emergency telephone calls to Plaintiff's cellular telephone using an automatic telephone dialing system or prerecorded or artificial voice without Plaintiff's prior express consent in violation of federal law, including 47 U.S.C § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable and judgment against Nationstar for statutory damages, punitive damages, actual damages, treble damages, enjoinder from further violations of these parts and any other such relief the court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
